

Brief Introduction of self :

Wing Commander Nunna Ramesh Kumar Choudary , hails from the town of 'Razole' in East Godavari dt , AP .

- After Graduating in Engineering, he chose to serve the country by Joining Defense services , 'Indian Air Force' .
- He served in Indian Airforce with distinction, for more than 20 years and worked in various operational units across India.
- During his Military service , Wing Commander Ramesh Kumar Choudary had faced many tough situations countering enemy actions and each time he along with his team Neutralized enemy and achieved victory for our mother land..
- While in Defense, he continuously sharpened his academic skills by participating in number of Senior Management Defense courses, seminars and also completed MBA in HR.

After 22 years of service , at his own request , granted voluntary retirement from service at the Senior Officer rank of 'Wing Commander'.

- Ever since he had been working as Head HR in a number of Corporates like 'MNC Glaxo Smith cline' and Health care sector corporate Hospitals like 'CARE', 'Yashoda', 'Global' & 'Narayana Health'
- Grooming the Younger generation and Motivating them to Grow 'professionally and personally' is his 'Motto' and he so far trained Hundreds of Youngsters across various walks of Life including college and school going children.
- He is now dedicating his full time 'Only for Imparting Training' on 'Personality development' and Soft Skillsto Students ,Professionals and senior Staff as well.

Today 'Wing Commander' is here with us all to share his thoughts and experiences on 'Team Building'

