

Profile

S. Rama Krishna

He possessed Master Degree in Transportation Engineering from Regional Engineering College, Warangal. He has over twenty years of experience in transportation and traffic engineering studies which includes preparation of city level transport plans, national level bus based transport system studies, preparation of traffic management plans, Accident investigation and road safety management studies etc..

The key Experience however lies in public transportation planning and preparing implementation plans. Led the studies in preparing traffic and Transportation Plans, Accident investigation studies, Road Safety Education, Accessibility for the for the differently abled, Development of City bus Operational plans for Bhopal, Bhubneshwar, Guwahati, Ranchi etc. His experience covers a wide range of areas including Capacity Building, Transportation Planning, Traffic Engineering, Mass Transit System studies

Rama Krishna is currently looking after the Public Transportation Projects and. He is involved in the preparation of Comprehensive Traffic and Transportation Studies for major cities in India. Comprehensive Mobility Plans for a number of cities in India have been developed under his guidance. Some specific planning initiatives include:

Road Safety Education in Asia – (in collaboration with Transport Research Laboratories, UK (TRL)

Enhanced Accessibility for the Disabled Living in Urban Areas in collaboration with Transport Research laboratories, UK.

“ Surface Transport Master Plan for Bhutan – Client : Royal Government of Bhutan) “ and Parking Plan for Thimphu (Client: Thimphu Thromde)

Also conducted more than 50 training training programmes to officials of State Transport Undertakings, Motor Vehicle departs, Traffic police departments.

Special training programmes were conducted for IAS and IPS officers

Visite Istanbul in 2015 for studying BRTS

Visited Mauritius in the year 2000 for conducting Training programme to the “ National Transport Corporation “ employees on Routing and Scheduling of Bus Operations.

Visited United Kingdom in1999 under Higher Education Link programme to study the public transport system and demand forecasting techniques.

At present, he is working as Senior Vice President in Urban Mass Transit Company (UMTC).