

Sri P Satyanarayana :

Sri P.Satyanarayana joined NRSC/ISRO in 1999 after successful completion of first RS&GIS course of CSSTEAP affiliated to United Nations at IIRS Campus, Dehradun in 1996 and obtained first M.Tech (RS&GIS) degree from Andhra University with first rank. He has also successfully completed M.Sc from Geo-Engg Dept. of Andhra University. He is currently working as Scientist / Engineer 'SE' at National Remote Sensing Centre, ISRO, Department of Space, Hyderabad and having multiple task capabilities.

He has contributed in Disaster Management Support Programme of NRSC/ISRO and worked 24X7 for preparing necessary maps and action plans during Orissa super cyclone and also for Tsunami period.

He is a Team member in SISDP project, AIBP project, India-WRIS project, Inventory and Monitoring of Glacial Lakes project, Landslide Hazard zonation mapping project and acted as facilitator for capacity building, State and Central Govt. departments, project students, researchers and individuals for remote sensing and GIS technology and applications.

Currently, he is working for major national projects of NRSC/ISRO:

- India-WRIS Web GIS (India Water Resources Information System)
- SIS-DP (Space based inputs for decentralized planning in the country)
- Bhuvan Panchayats portal and EPRIS.
- River morphology project of CWC

He has received award for ISRO Team Excellence Award for AIBP project in 2008 and ISRO Team Excellence award for India – WRIS, project in 2010.