

Dr Nirmal Kumar Mandal:

Dr Nirmal Kumar Mandal is a specialist in e- Governance & ICT (Information & Communication Technology) enabled Development projects. He is having a career spanning 20 years with experience in both Management Consulting Services and Project Implementation with national & international level organisations.

Worked with large range of stakeholders (Government, NGOs, Cooperatives, Community Based Organizations, Corporates & International Donor Agencies)

His areas of interest are Designing e- governance project, ICT enabled Development Project, Government Process Re-engineering, Designing Business Model, Public Private Partnership, Monitoring and Evaluation of e-Governance & Development Projects, Capacity Building & Change Management.

He has done PGDRM from Institute of Rural Management Anand (IRMA), 1992 – 1994.

He is working as Deputy General Manager in National Institute for Smart Government, Hyderabad from September 2006 – Present (10 years).

He worked as Project Manager in World Bank Funded Project for Society for Elimination of Rural Poverty (SERP), Government of Andhra Pradesh from June 2003 – September 2006 (3 years 4 months), Senior Consultant in Mott MacDonald, Kolkata, Coordinator in National Cooperative Dairy Federation of India, Anand in Gujarat.