

Sh G R K Pillai Assistant Director(QA), DGS&D is a metallurgist. He has vast experience in testing and inspection of various goods especially metallurgical items. He was posted in SAIL Bhilai from the department for inspection of rails being rolled out from factory. He has worked at various places thru out the country including N. delhi, hyderabad etc. He is consulted for various issues regarding metallurgy of various products being brought by government thru DGS&D.

DGS&D (Directorate general of supplies & Disposal) is Central procurement Agency for Govt. Of India. It comes under ministry of Commerce. It is manned by two organized Gp-A service cadres namely Indian Supply service & Indian inspection service, recruited thru Indian Engineering Service Exam conducted by UPSC. The department is headed by Director general ( S&D) who sits in N. Delhi. The Zones namely north, south, west, East and central are headed by deputy director general. The core business of the organization is preparation of specification, registration of firm, floating of Ad-hoc tenders , conclusion of rate contracts, conduct pre despatch inspection of stores and other misc technical assignments assigned by GOI.