

Ms K Sasipriya:

Ms Sasipriya Karumanchi is currently the senior faculty at Lions Aravind Institute of Community Ophthalmology, India, a Unit of Aravind Eye Care System. Been with LAICO for last 15 years; currently heads consulting initiative at LAICO.

About LAICO: Established in 1992 with the support of the Lions Club International SightFirst Programme and Seva Sight Programme, is Asia's first international training facility for blindness prevention workers from India and other parts of the world. It contributes to improving the quality of eye care services through teaching, training, research and consultancy.