

Sri R S Aravindakshan, IRS:

Sri R S Aravindakshan hails from Hyderabad and belongs to the 2007 batch of the Indian Revenue Service.

He served the Income tax Department at Vijayawada, Khammam and Hyderabad and has handled assessments of Partnership firms, companies, trusts, banks etc.

He also had a stint in the investigation wing of the Department at Hyderabad, which undertakes search and seizure operations. Later, he served at the National Academy of Direct Taxes, Nagpur, which imparts induction training to the probationers of Indian Revenue Service.

At NADT, he was the Associate Course Coordinator for the 88th Foundation Course conducted in association with the Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration, Mussorie for the officers selected in the Civil Service Examination, 2012. Later, he served as Assistant Course Director for the Induction Programme of 2013 batch of IRS and Deputy Director (Administration).

Presently, he is posted as Joint Commissioner of Income Tax, Range-1, Visakhapatnam. He holds a bachelor's degree in Computer Science and Engineering and loves to read and travel.