

PROFILE

CAREER & WORK

Dr.Gadde.Ratna Vani, Associate Professor in Public Administration and HOD of History and Indian Culture department of Loyola Academy Degree&PGCollege Hyderabad, she has a teaching experience of 26 years in reputed Educational Institutions in Hyderabad. She is passionate towards research, presents papers in national and international journals. She contribute Articles to IAS coaching centers in Hyderabad on Current Affairs of Indian Polity, she also take part in NGO activates to promote education among weaker sections of the society.

She involves in organizing all cultural and service activities of their college. She motivates students to take part in community services and mentors most of the abroad and North East students since they are away from their parents. She guides students to attempt civil service examinations and encourages them to acquire leadership qualities as preparation for public service to transform local society in to SMART community. As NSS Officer she organizes awareness Rallis, seminars in and outside college campus with students on various public important issues.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS

Dr.Ratna Vani awarded Doctorate in Hospital Administration from Acharya Nagarjuna University in 2014 and M.Phil from Madras Christian College, Chennai, in1991. She has pursued PGDBM from Central University, Hyderabad in 2011, did her Post graduation from Nagarjuna University,Guntur in 1989. Intermediate and graduation from Andhra Christian College,Guntur and she did her schooling in Iowa Girls High School at Repalle,

FAMILY

Dr.G.R.Vani is married to Mr.Sujay Dev Kumar, who works for Medical Department of Indian Railways. She is blessed with two sons elder one Joel Frank engineering graduate, now working as Bank Manager in Telangana State Cooperative Apex Bank(TSCAB) and younger son Kevin pursuing MBBS.