

Mr. N. Md. Shajahan has 38 years of work experience in the field of renewable energy technology, sustainability, biodiversity, solar home lighting system, rural development, GHG emission reduction, animal husbandry etc. He has Worked as an Incharge projects Director, district Water management Agency, Executive Director, S.C. Corporation, SETMA. Currently working as the Executive Director of S3IDF, he has been involved in the implementation of solar home lighting systems at Kondapuram village of Ananthapur district, Andhra Pradesh under MNRE and NABARD, implementation of a model of Rural Development with special emphasis on the provision of modern energy devices through renewable energy technologies and more energy efficient equipment. He is also involved in the replacement of renewable energy technology for lighting and cooking and in the installation of a “Mahila Service Center” owned and managed by women at the village level.