

Sri A V Praveen Krishna

Sri A.V.Praveen Krishna currently working as Sr.Assistant Professor in KL University and pursuing the Ph.D in Computer Science & Engineering. He is actively engaged in research and publications in the areas of Network Security, Malware, Intrusion Detections and IOT. For his active research contributions the ACM has conferred “Best Research Proposal Award” at Udaipur on 3rd March,2016 and listed as one of the top “Brand Ambassador for ACM” for the year 2016 (among top 25).

Mr.Praveen was awarded with “Best Computer Science Faculty” for year 2012 in all india basis by Government of Puddcherry and ASDF,Techno Forum. Mr.Praveen have completed his M.Tech (CSE) from K.L College of Engineering, Acharaya Nagarjuna University and secured as topper & first ranker. He is topper of the university and honoured with gold medal and scholarship for his extraordinary performance in MCA from SCSVMV University, Tamilnadu.

Mr.Praveen was awarded with “Significant Contribution Award” for his outstanding contribution, by India’s prestigious professional society “Computer Society of India (CSI)” for the year 2011 in Ahemadabad. He received “Best Student Branch Award” from the India’s Professional body CSI for the year 2011, 2012,2013 and 2014 in his tenure as Student Branch Counselor in all India basis.

Prof.Praveen acted as a panel of judge for South East Asia Regional Computer Confederation and Computer Society of India (SEARCC International School’s Software Competition). He had won Third Prize in Quiz Competition conducted by Sri Kanchi Kamma Koti Peetam on “Ramayana” throughout India.

In KL University, he has feedback as an excellent teacher and he is honoured with “Best Teacher Award”. He has organized many International and National Conferences, Workshops, Guest Lectures, FDP’s, Symposiums etc. in K L University and many other institutions /organizations across the India.