

Prof. Venkata Chalam Goriparthi

Topic : Impact of MIS – Govt. organizations/departments

Prof V Chalam is presently working as Professor, Department of Commerce & Business Administration, Acharya Nagarjuna University from 2005 to till date. He has completed M.Com., LL.M., M.B.A., and Ph.D.

He also worked as Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Lecturer and Research Scholar, Acharya Nagarjuna University.

As an Academic Resource Person, he taught Master's level courses as visiting/guest/resource person in Financial management, Security analysis & Portfolio management, Financial derivatives, International finance, Operations management and Accounting & Finance for managers for Acharya N.G. Ranga Agricultural University, Indira Gandhi National Open University, Pondicherry University, Andhra University, Dr B.R. Ambedkar Open University, etc. He is also a guest faculty at Sri Venkateswara University, Krishna University and many affiliated colleges of Acharya Nagarjuna, Krishna University, Andhra University and JNTU for M.B.A Program in Financial Management and its related disciplines.

Prof V Chalam visited about 20 Business Schools in U.S.A in top ranked Universities, viz., Harvard Business School, MIT Sloan School of Management, etc. since 2007 and interacted with faculty and also involved in MS (Finance) case study discussions and group discussions along with researchers and students.

He received State Teacher Award – 2014, Best Researcher Award – 2016, Lifetime Achievement Award – Venus International Research Award-2016 etc.