

P. Sambamoorthy, CEO and Principal Consultant, Ascent Leadership and Management Consultants Pvt. Ltd.

He is a Post-graduate in Management, from Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore, He did his B.A & M.A in Loyola College, Chennai. After over 15 years of Industrial experience, in senior managerial positions, in large private and public sector companies, Mr. Sambamoorthy had established Ascent Leadership and Management Consultants.

He is an expert in Business Growth Strategies, Governance Reform, and Institutional Capacity Building and has provided consultancy assistance to over 100 clients including several SME Segment, Large PSUs & Government departments. He has also worked with multilateral agencies such as World Bank, DFID and UNDP in India and overseas in short duration assignments.

- Municipal Administration & Urban Development (AP, Maharashtra, MP, Bihar)
- Police (AP)
- Rural Development(AP, Bihar)
- Health(AP)
- SERP(AP)
- Rajiv Yuva Kiranalu (AP)
- APSRTC (AP)
- Administrative Reforms (West Bengal)
- State Administration Reform (Timor Leste -International)
- Housing (MP)

Trained in Japan in Business and Total Quality Management and widely travelled to USA, Philippines, Thailand, Indonesia, and Srilanka on business purposes

Currently, he is heading the Project Management Unit in the role of the Project Director, formed for the purpose of providing technical support to the Municipal Administration Department to implement the Government of AP GO No. 279 (Systems Standardization for Sanitation and Solid Waste Management) across the state in all the 110 Urban Local Bodies(ULBs) .