

Sri Sai Ramesh:

Sri Sai Ramesh is a Senior IT leader with 20 years of experience for delivering complex, high risk, high value ICT Interventions. He has done his Bachelor of Technology in Civil Engineering from Nagarjuna University, India, Member, Technology World Conference UKITC, London, 2010 and Author for Technical Student Guide on Microsoft Project 2010 for Aptech Group, 2012.

He worked as Principal Consultant for DPR, RFP for Computerization of Targeted Public Distribution System across Central and 4 Pilot States AP, Assam, Chhattisgarh and Delhi, Principal Consultant ESCIMS Excise Supply Chain Information Management System including As-Is Assessment, To-Be Solution, Technology Architecture, Functional Requirements, DPR, RFP including Technical and Commercial Evaluation for Excise Department, GNCTD, Delhi, Principal consultant for Integrated Basin Development and Livelihood Program for Meghalaya, Principal Consultant and Tec

Technical expert for Orissa Health Management Information System, Principal Consultant for Orissa Department of Labour & Directorate of Factories & Boilers

He handled various e-gov assignments like DPR and POC for Water Tanker Route Optimization for Delhi Jal Board, RFP deliverables for Orissa Urban Citizen Service Centers, Gol, Technical architecture and visual model for eSagu, International Institute of Information Technology, Hyderabad, India, Technical Architect for VAT to GST Implementation for Govt. of Puducherry etc.

His major IT assignments are Technical Architect, Delivery Manager for Gentis, Transgenomic Health Services, USA, Technical Manager, Cell Guidance, Cambridge Centre for Karyotyping Imaging Services for Human Cells, Technical Manager, i-Trax Inc Health Management for US Military Health Services, Solution Designer for Tamil Nadu Health Systems Project covering 66 Hospitals etc.