

Profile of Ms Indira Prakash

Ms Indira Prakash has done masters in Environment Studies and have been working in Centre for Environment Education (CEE) for the past 10 plus years. She has been coordinating the programme for both the Andhra Pradesh and Telangana states.

She has been coordinating key areas of CEE

- o Environment Management Framework (EMF) for sustainable livelihoods - Poverty Eradication Through Capacity building , providing alternative or environmentally proactive alternative livelihoods to enhance the livelihoods and income of the beneficiary.
- o Water Sanitation in schools and rural and urban Communities - Awareness and capacity building and involving various levels of the stake holders to bring behavioral change in community through collaborative actions
- o Nature and Environment Education for Primary and Higher level education
- o Conservation of Biodiversity - Preparation and documentation of People Biodiversity Registers
- o National Consultations - Involved in public consultations on Coastal Regulation Zone (CRZ) (in 2008) and Coastal Management Zone (CMZ) (in 2010) on behalf of Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change, Govt. of India