

Dr. K. SRINIVAS

Dr. K. Srinivas is a development Professional with 20 years of experience in leading, managing and implementing development programmes in various states of India and Ghana. He established, managed partnerships with International Non-Governmental Organisations, Corporate Social Responsibility Cells, Government departments and Community Based Organisations.

He has worked in Urban public health issues in several states of India including Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Chattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra and Uttar Pradesh. He supported public health programmes in conceptualising, designing and implementation of communication campaigns.

At present, he is working as a Research Officer, Regional Centre for Urban Environmental Studies, Osmania University, Hyderabad. He is playing a key role in building the capacities of Urban Local Bodies of Southern states of India. In addition, he writes editorial to regional Newspapers.