

Dr Jacob Victor:

Dr Jacob Victor is Currently working as General Manager, with AP Technology Services Limited, an autonomous body under IT&C department in implementing e-governance in the state.

He has Started his career as a programmer in 1987, at Hyderabad and shifted to Bangalore, India, and worked as a faculty in Dept. of Compute Sciences in Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Technology. In 1988 shifted to HOCL, an industry at Cochin, India, for 10 years in positions from Systems Analyst to EDP Manger before Joining APTS. Hyderabad in 1998. While in Cochin, developed integrated applications for online attendance, HR, Inventory, Accounting, Billing & Invoicing using technologies - dbase, UNIFY, Oracle in DOS, UNIX and Windows Environment.

At APTS, as a consultant & Program Manager successfully executed more than 25 major IT projects, a team member of DFID funded OR study for computerization for Orrisa State Govt., India. During 2007 -2010, associated with IT&C department, Govt. of Andhra Pradesh as Joint director (e-governance) and implemented online Government orders System.

He has Graduated in Bachelor of Engg (BE), Computer Eng. from Andhra University, Visakhapatnam, India. Post graduated (M Tech.) in CS from Birla Institute of Technology, Ranchi, India. PhD in IT Security with JNTU, Hyderabad.

He has Membership in IEEE, ISACA and Fellow in IETE, Certified Information System Auditor (CISA). Certified Software Quality Professional by Govt. of India. Published around 10 white papers on e-governance, BPR and IDS.

Twenty 28 years of IT experience includes ICT policy, IT Audit, Project implementation models, Program Management, BPR, interoperability & standards, training, IT Architecture, SLA preparation, Quality control, Project feasibility, Systems Analysis, Design and Development of Software.