

Dr K S Vijaya Sekhar:

Topics : e Gov - Technological Framework, e Governance to m Governance :
The way forward

Dr K S Vijaya Sekhar has 25 years of rich experience - He is presently working in Research Center for eGovernance at IIIT Hyderabad. Previously, he was associated with Center for Economic and Social Studies (CESS), Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) and ICRISAT.

Sri Vijaya Sekhar holds PhD in Public Administration. His interest areas include eGovernance, Public Service Delivery and Inter-disciplinary approach towards ICT applications. He has Master of Commerce (M.Com), Master of Computer Applications (MCA), Master of Business Management (MBA) in HRM and Master of Social Work (MSW) to his academic profile.

He has published over 20 research papers in International and National conferences. He is recipient of 'Best Paper Award' for his research paper on 'Measuring Sustainability in Government Projects'. He is the Co-editor for three books (1) eGovernance Initiatives in India (2) Envisioning Digital India and (3) Digital India in Action.

He is Secretary to Computer Society of India's (CSI) Special Interest Group on eGovernance (CSI-SIGeGOV) from its inception – the year 2005 and to CSI Nihilent eGovernance Awards (CNEA) since the year 2003. He is Life member of CSI and recipient of 'CSI Service Award' for his significant contribution to e-Governance at National Level for the year 2012.