

Novel Patent Services:

Novel Patent Services Pvt. Ltd. is the one and only IP boutique operational centre located in AP. It is a global Research and Analytics firm providing customized patent research and trademark services. Founded in 2010, Novel Patent has emerged as a trusted research partner for global and domestic clients including Fortune 500 corporations, startup firms, law firms, educational universities and independent inventors in various industry verticals. Novel Patent's operations are based out of a global delivery centre in Visakhapatnam, India and have global presence in Houston, Texas, US. The company provides a variety of services under the Intellectual Property practices that range from Patent search, analytics, prosecution support, technology landscapes, portfolio mapping, drafting services. In addition we assist our clients to convert their research in to assets by providing lectures, training, workshops etc. that creates awareness on IPR.

Hima Bindu Managing Director at Novel Patent Services Private Limited

Hima oversees the IPR vertical and operations for Novel Patent Services Pvt. Ltd. She is also the founder, and practicing partner for Novel Patent Services with an experience of over 10 yrs in IPR. She currently heads Corporate Affairs and drives strategic initiatives across group businesses. Hima's clients range from independent inventors, start-up and emerging technology companies, many US Universities to large multi-national technology companies in the areas from consumer products to aviation. She is a member of various boards and advisory boards for a significant number of private budding technology companies. Currently, Mrs. Hima with an experience of 10+ years in IP field is an IP consultant to US and European based corporations, where she has overall responsibility of strategizing their IP portfolio by setting up the offshore research support.

Mrs. Hima Mastered in Technology (M. Tech Biomedical Engineering). She is a Gold Medalist and has certifications in Patent Law and also is a certified Women Entrepreneur from Indian School of Business. She is currently guest faculty IPR at various engineering colleges and has lectured and organized several seminars, conferences, training programmes, workshops in the areas of Intellectual Property Rights, technology, Women Empowerment, Entrepreneurship, outsourcing, e-commerce at various Engineering Colleges, Law & Business Schools in India and at various Continuing Legal Education and IP awareness conferences.