

Sri K Rama Reddy :

Sri K. Rama Reddy is working as Vice President, Information Technology - eFresh Global. He is a Graduate in Statistics, Certified Microsoft Professional, Certified Lean Six Sigma Green Belt holder and Certified Lead Auditor ISO QMS 9001:2008, Trained on CMMi Version 1.3 (SEI-CMMI) and also holds ITIL V3 Foundation Certificate in IT Service Management.

He has Designed and implemented the e-commerce activities of eKraftsindia an initiative supported by NABARD. eKraftsindia portal was launched by Honorable Finance Minister Mr. Arun Jaitley in Jan 2015. Currently designing e-commerce Business in the area of Marketing Healthy Foods.

Prior to joining eFresh Global, Mr. Rama Reddy has held varied positions in IT management, including Project Management, Head of Information Security and Quality Assurance for BSE listed IT Services Company. Mr. Rama Reddy has extensive experience in configuration management, CMMi Process Development, SDLC Development, strategized project scoping and specifications documents and has led initiatives to produce in-house ERP applications.

Other Important Assignments held by him are:

- Independent software consultant in the areas of process implementation and improvement to several corporate.
- Creation, Development and operationalization of software solutions and all the associated activities for eFresh .
- Associated with M/s Emerson Climate Technologies India in conceptualization and development of save energy calculator.
- Active member of qualitygurus.com – an international forum for quality professionals