

Dr. Mukesh B. Joshi

Dr. M. B. Joshi, recipient of 'Young Engineer Award' from Central Board of Irrigation and Power for his significant contribution to the field of Water Resources Management, is working as General Manager (Technical & Coordination) in Sardar Sarovar Narmada Nigam Ltd. and has got vast experience in water management, planning & designing of canal network, quality control and procurement. Earlier he was entrusted with additional responsibility as Member Secretary of Narmada Planning Group and Board of Consultants of SSNNL and also as Director, Gujarat Water Infrastructure Limited. He is a Civil Engineering graduate with specialization in Water Resources Management. Dr. Joshi received his Doctorate from Indian Institute of Technology, Bombay in the year 1995 for his Thesis entitled "MIS and Simulation Based Approach for Irrigation Operation & Management". He has been associated with the Sardar Sarovar (Narmada) Project since last 32 years and has contributed in various aspects of planning, designing and quality control of the canal network including the SCADA based remote monitoring and control system. He has also got more than 80 Technical papers published at national and international levels. Continuing his pursuit for excellence, Dr. Joshi has been contributing in training the fellow engineers as a visiting faculty, external examiner and Research Guide at various Universities and Institutes etc. He also peer reviews Articles/Technical Papers as an Invitee Reviewer for International Research

Journals. Earlier he has also served as a Visiting Faculty to Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University for two semesters.