

Sri Ratna Kishore :

Completed masters from MBA in the year 2010 from Andhra University campus. Joined in the department of rural development in the year 2010. Initially worked at Guntur district as manager -DBT and then promoted to the Commissioner, office panchayat Raj and Rural Development presently working as State programme manager-DBT. Developed the IT initiatives like Aadhar authentication payments for MGNREGI wage sleekness and social security pensioners, Electronic fund management system, Aadhar payment bridge system and Ministers dash board.

He also received best employee award from district administration in Guntur and state level best employee award from Honorable Chief minister