

Dr. Madhava Rao Thirtham

Professor and university Head
Department of Veterinary Public Health
College of Veterinary Science
Tirupati
Sri venkateswara Veterinary University (SVVU)

Total service in ANGRAU/SVVU is 33 years
Experience in Teaching, Research and Extension

Specialised in Food safety (milk and meat hygiene)
Bacteriological (pathogenic bacteria) and chemical residues (pesticides, heavy metals, steroids etc.)
in milk and meat and its entry in food chain and its impact on human health.

Guided 11 PG and PhD students

Studied the impact of soil, water, fodder on buffalo milk produced at banks of musli river, Hyderabad.
Written popular articles in telugu for the benefit of farmers in "Panchangam" published by ANGR
Agricultural University (2012 and 2013) and SVVU (2017).

Awards; AP state Best Teacher award 2015
"Rythu nestham award (2015)

Member in Academic council of SVVU
Expert Member in Board of Faculty of Veterinary Science, PVNR Veterinary University, Hyderabad, Telangana.
Member in Board of Management, SVVU nominated by the Govt. of A.P.
Expert in selection committees of Veterinary universities of Karnataka, Tamilnadu.