

Sri K Rajasekhar:

Sri K Rajasekhar is presently holding the position of Deputy Director General, NIC, APSC, Hyderabad.

He has over 25 years of work experience in all the vital areas of Information & Communication Technology : DSP & e-Governance. Harnessing following technologies : Datawarehousing and Mining, Security, Citizen IT Interface, Computer Telephony Integration, Mobile Computing, Bio-metrics, GIS, Local Language Computing, remote Sensing, Internet, Image Processing, Cloud and Cluster Computing.

He has received 20 National & International awards for various e-Governance initiatives. Authored and published/presented over 15 papers. He is currently doing Ph. D in Computer Science and Engineering at JNTU.

He is associated with State Level e- Governance Projects like Missing & Found Persons, e-Agni Suraksha, The Girl Child Protection Scheme, etc and National Level e- Governance Projects like Hortnet, Vidyawaan, Mobile Applications for Anganwadis, Nursing HRHMIS, e-Kisan, CGHS and Mahila-Shishu.

He has vast experience of function as State Informatics Officer of NIC in Meghalaya from January 1990 to September 1197. He has successfully established NIC State and district centres in the North Eastern Region especially in Meghalaya, Manipur and Mizoram.

There are 24 National & International Awards won by the eGovernance projects contributed by him, some of them are Online Scholarship Management System - Won e-Governance 2010 Award and Skotch Challenger 2010 Award. Mobile Disease Based Surveillance System has won mBillionth 2010 Finalist Award. e-Medlabs IPM - Best ICT initiative for diagnostic services won - eIndia 2011 Award - Jury Choice, Disha - Sanskrit Manuscripts won Manthan South Asia Finalist 2010 Award etc.