

Dr Madhu Uddaraju:

Dr. Madhu Uddaraju has done MBBS from JJM Medical College, Davangere., Completed his Basic Course in Ophthalmic diagnostics in LVP-Zeiss International Academy, Hyderabad.

Dr Madhu Completed his M.S in Ophthalmology from Narayana Medical College, Nellore with his Thesis on Microbial Keratitis which was selected by Academic and Research Committee of Andhra Pradesh State Ophthalmological Society for the Research Scholarship award and Grant.

Dr Madhu Uddaraju is presently working as Medical Director, Srikan Institute of Ophthalmology, East Godavari and serving as Medical Director for Badam Balakrishna Eye Bank

He Worked as an observer in comprehensive ophthalmology in L.V.Prasad Eye Institute, Vishakapatnam, worked as a Clinical Research Coordinator at L.V.Prasad Eye Institute.

He Presented 42 free papers, 27 posters and E-Posters in AP state conferences, National Conferences and International Conferences. He served as a Conference-coordinator for the 35th APOS Meeting.

He Delivered an instruction course on Limbal stem cell deficiency in 36th APOS meeting, Guntur in 2012, delivered an instruction course on Smear Guided Anti-Microbial Therapy in 37th APOS Meeting, Warangal in 2013, delivered an instruction course on Cornea Diagnostics in 38th APOS Meeting, Rajahmundry in 2014.

Dr Madhu Uddaraju received Vishnuvardhan best anterior segment paper award and G R Reddy Best paper of the conference in A P state conference -2016 He Published 5 Articles in International Peer Reviewed Journals.