

Sri L Venkateswara Rao:

Topic : Health Problems related to growing Urbanization, Role of Community based Health workers

Sri L Venkateswara Rao is presently working as Information, Education, Behavioural Change Communication Specialist, Swachh Andhra Corporation, Municipal Administration and Urban Development, Government of Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada

He has Fifteen years of experience in social development sector in Rural & Urban areas working with Government & Non-Government Sectors in the areas of Women empowerment, Child development, Youth empowerment, Differently abled and Vulnerable groups development activities. Also experience in IEBC and capacity building under Swachh Bharath Mission Activities, Community Mobilisation and Sustainability of SHG's/ PWDs of SHGs, Livelihood activities, HIV/AIDS in different Communities like students, youth, villagers and Commercial Sex Workers. Administration and coordination experience apart from dealing with Behavioural Change interventions and field.

In addition to that as a counselling psychologist having the experience in counselling as a special expatriation. Modules prepared for Health module (MAS under NUHM) for MEPMA, Community Mobilization Institutional Development – NIUM , Rural water & Sanitation programmes.

He has completed Master of Social Work - Nagarjuna University, M.Sc. (Psychology) - Nagarjuna University