

Mr. Murali is a Transport Planner with more than 23 years of experience in Transport Planning and Traffic Engineering projects. He received his B.Tech from College of Engineering, Thiruvananthapuram and Masters in Transport Planning from School of Planning and Architecture, New Delhi. Mr. Murali is at present working as Head – Project Development Studies in L&T Infrastructure Engineering Limited, Chennai (formerly L&T Ramboll Consulting Engineers)

Mr. Murali has worked as Team Leader for Project Development Studies for various infrastructure projects and Traffic and Transportation studies in many cities. He was involved in developing transportation strategies and policies for many cities. Mr. Murali is currently team leader for preparation of Comprehensive Mobility Plan for Jaipur city He has played a key role in Densification Study along Chennai Metro Corridor, Land Utilisation Study for 50m strip along Chennai ORR and Multi-modal Integration Plan along Chennai Sub-urban Lines etc. He has worked as Team Leader for Feasibility Study for MRTS in Nagpur, City Road Improvement Project for Kannur, Kerala. He was also Transport Planner for Hyderabad MMTS, where the novel idea of utilising Long haul rail lines within the city for urban transport was introduced. He was also the Team Leader for Comprehensive Traffic and Transport Study for Nagpur, Pondicherry & Sangli and City Road Improvement Study for Jamshedpur. His experiences in project development studies include Feasibility Study for development of 440 km of roads in 3 districts of AP, preparation of DPR for the newly declared National Highway between Satara and Tembhurni in Maharashtra, Feasibility Study for development of 250 km of State Highways in Tamil Nadu, 350 km of State Highways in Kerala and 5 km of elevated corridor in Jaipur. He has worked as Team Leader for Pre-feasibility Study for Multi-modal hubs in Thiruvananthapuram, Kochi & Kozhikode and preparation of DPR for procurement of buses under JNNURM for 4 cities in Bihar.

Mr. Murali has written many papers and presented in various seminar and journals. Mr. Murali is a member of Indian Roads Congress, Institute of Town Planners India, Institution of Engineers and Institute of Urban Transport. Mr. Murali has working experience in Malaysia and Sri Lanka.