

Sri Anand Zachariah:

Sri Anand Zachariah is Professor and Head of the Department of Medicine at the Christian Medical College, Vellore. He was formerly Vice Principal in charge of undergraduate education. In this capacity he has been actively involved in curricular changes at CMC.

He has also been involved in distance education, setting up the distance courses of Postgraduate Diploma in Family Medicine for recent MBBS graduates and Fellowship in HIV Medicine. He was also involved in setting up the E-learning programme at CMC Vellore.

His research interests are in Toxicology and snake envenomation, adult undernutrition and infectious disease.