

Sri Chandra Sekara Reddy:

Sri Chandra Sekara Reddy is expert in Cyber Security Research and Education. His Experience includes Information and Network security, Exploit & Malware research, Wireless security, Web Security, E-mail Security, Cyber forensics and compliance. He has done his Graduation from BITS, Pilani in the year of 2001.

Sri Chandra Sekara Reddy is presently working as Lead, Cyber Security Analytics at VirSec Systems Inc, Data Security Council of India, Karnataka.

Sri Chandra is the founder & Technical Contributor of upcoming new venture for all information security related hub www.InfosecPedia.com and also he educates government officials, college students and various corporate technical analysts on latest security concepts and helps them in deal with day to day challenges in information and infrastructure security along with System Administration trouble shooting. Chandra finished his graduation from BITS, Pilani in 2001. He did first IPV6 remote security project for UNIX systems in the year of 2000 and presented to Computer Systems Department t BITS.

Sri Chandra is having more than 15+ years of Experience in Corporate industry where he involved in various critical project executions, which are into System Hardening, VA, PT, Forensics and Exploit Research.

He is well known for writing dynamic rules ( SIEM products – Arcsight, RSA Envision) to catch Internal and External attacks. He has extensive experience in implementing various controls to protect company assets along with privacy of individuals.

He delivered talks and courses on Hardening and Vulnerability Management for Large Enterprise, Effective Windows Security, Unix Security in Depth, Effective Protection using Simulation of attacks etc.