

Sri P Narsing Rao:

Topic : Urban Innovation

Sri. P. Narsing Rao did his Post Graduate in Commerce and PG diploma in Urban Development and worked for about 30+ years in Govt. of Andhra Pradesh & Govt. of India with focus on “Finance and Accounts.”

Sri Narsing Rao availed VRS benefit as Manager (F&A) on 31-07-2001. Sri Rao started Urban Development Research Institute (UDRI) during August 2001. He conducted Training Programs to the employees of the various Municipal Corporations in India on “Capacity Building & Skill Development Strategies”. The flagship Training Program of the UDRI has been titled as “Effective Urban Governance through Increase in Municipal Revenues”. He conducted such Training Programs at the Centers of the 75 Municipal Corporations in India.

Besides this, he participated in more than 120 national & international Seminars/Workshops that were held in various metro cities of India and abroad too. He made Presentations in more than 60 Seminars. During Oct. 2011, he made a presentation in “5th Euro-India Summit” on “Smart, Sustainable and Innovative Cities” held at Leuven City of Belgium which was conducted by Euro-India Center, New Delhi. Recently, he has been participating actively in various national and international Conferences and Seminars on “Smart Cities” held at Mumbai, Ahmedabad, and New Delhi. He has developed good contacts with the with the Urban Development Department, Govt. of India at New Delhi and also in many state capital Cities.