

Sri T Vidya Sagar:

Topic: Municipal Solid Waste Management Scenario in India & current status in AP & ULBs

Sir T Vidya Sagar is presently working as Senior Environmental Scientist, AP Pollution Control Board. He has completed M.Sc (Chemistry of Foods, Drugs and Water), School of Chemistry, Andhra University, Visakhapatnam and M.Phil. (Inorganic Chemistry) School of Chemistry, Andhra University, Visakhapatnam.

He worked as Joint Chief Env. Scientist (I/C), Senior Environmental Scientist, Junior Scientific Officer etc in AP Pollution Control Board. He worked as Correspondent, ICM Schools, West Godavari District.

His areas of work include Implementation of management policy as senior executive on 3 Zonal Labs and 2 Regional Labs. Initiated NABL accreditation of ISO/IEC 17025:2005 for 3 ZLs, Supervisory cadre. Expertise in Instrumentation applications and usage. HR Management. Knowledge on theory and operation with basics in electronics & computing Evaluation and Environment Assessment, Supervisory cadre. Analysis, guiding sub-staff, report generation and validation of environmental samples pertain to water, wastewater, air, soil and hazardous waste, Working basic level. Chemical Analysis and sampling Air and water/wastewater under acts. Application of knowledge in activities with strong hold in chemistry, physics, instrumentation and basic electronics. Assessment of treatment plants and environment. Participated in Educational programs at colleges and schools.