

Dr B Keerthi:

Dr. B. Keerthi is a post graduate in social work and Doctorate from Andhra University. She had further education on social development from Coady International Institute, St Francis Xavier University Canada and INSEAD Business School Paris. Keerthi was trained in social development from many recognized institutes in India and abroad.

Dr Keerthi is experienced in social development sector since 1980, worked in empowerment of women, development of children and geriatric care in a rights based approach in the areas of education, health, nutrition, livelihoods and violence free society. She has trained many personnel both in civil society and NGO sector in gender equality, gender based violence. She is the Technical Support Manager of Vasavya Mahila Mandali a secular NGO based at Vijayawada, Andhra Pradesh.

She is a member in Committee on Prevention of Sexual Harassment at workplaces at Railways Vijayawada Division from 2005, Aayush NRI LEPL Health Care Private Limited from 2015, Local Complaints Committee Krishna District from 2015; Ethical Committee, Aayush NRI LEPL Health Care Private Limited, member 2013 onwards; Andhra Pradesh State ASHA Mentoring Group, Member May 2015 onwards; Member, Country Coordinating Mechanism (CCM) in India for Global Fund in Ministry of Health and Family welfare 2009-2012 for the constituency child rights. Keerthi is leading a counseling team on call money cases at Vijayawada Police Commissionrate.