

Sri Chetan Zaveri:

Topic : Best Practices in Waste Treatment technology

Sri Chetan Zaveri has nearly 25 years of national and international experience in project advisory, environmental consulting and academia. Nineteen (19) years of these, Mr. Zaveri has worked in Senior Technical and Management positions in India and USA. Presently working as an Executive Director (Environment) managing the Environmental Practice of AECOM as Country Head – Business Line Leader in India. At AECOM, Mr. Zaveri leads a multi-disciplinary team of experts to offer diversified Environment and Ground Engineering services to the Clients.

Mr. Zaveri has provided transaction advisory services to implement Integrated Solid Waste Management projects pan India on a Public Private Partnership framework with an objective to help the ULBs to develop an integrated and a comprehensive solution to scientifically manage Municipal Solid Waste in their region. Work included formulation of site specific ISWM projects, waste technology selection including permitting and bidding them out to international companies/consortia on a suitable model through an ICB process.

The Gorai Dumping Ground Scientific Closure and Methane Capture Project of Mumbai which was completed under his leadership was selected among the top 10 project in the East Asia, Pacific & South Asia region by the IFC, a member of the World Bank Group. The Project was selected as a benchmark project in Urban Rejuvenation, and was awarded Presidential Trophy in 2011.

Mr. Zaveri is a Chartered Engineer holding a MS in Civil Engineering from USA and a Bachelor's in Chemical Engineering from Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai