

P.Tirupathi Reddy was born in Karimnagar District. He joined in the Service 1970 as a Sub Inspector of Police. Initially he worked at Khammam dist. in various police stations. Later he went to C.I.D, Vigillence departments He worked as a Assistant Police Comissioner at Hyderabad. In the Service of Government of India he served the department at Central detective training school Hyderabad and involved in trained the police personal Scientifically national and International Police Officers and got the Appreciation of the depart ment. Twice he got the Medal of Government of Andhra Pradesh, by submitting the paper using Scientific means of Investigations. He also won the Laurels of Government of Andhra Pradesh with a gold medal for his outstanding services to the Nation. He also acted as a Judge in Conducting various Ward Functions. He was sent for Special Training at London for training the best Cadets in the police department of the State. He was also deputed to different states namely West Bengal, Tamilnadu, CBI Academy Delhi and Karnataka to give. He has laid a strong foundation for using Scientific means of Investigation, public relations, Human rights, for working about 33 years in the Police Departments in different Capacities' retired as Additional Superintendent of Police on 30-9-2003. For his outstanding the police department has honoured him with SEVA & UTHAMA SEVA Award. He also received Indian Police Medal in 1998 and President Police Medal in 1998. He also written two books "KalaChakram Lo Police" and "Arai ndla Swathantram" which was published in the year 2007.