Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (Education for All Movement),

SSA is an Indian Government programme aimed at the universalisation of Elementary Education "in a time bound manner", as mandated by the 86th Amendment to the Constitution of India making free and compulsory education to children between the ages of 6 to 14 (estimated to be 205 million children in 2001) a Fundamental Right.

The programme was pioneered by former Indian Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vaupayee.

SARVA SIKSHA ABHIYAN

Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan is an effort to universalize elementary education by community-ownership of the school system.

It is a response to the demand for quality basic education all over the country.

The SSA programme is also an attempt to provide an opportunity for improving human capabilities to all children, through provision of community-owned quality education in a mission mode.

Objectives of SSA

- All children in school, Education Guarantee Centre, 'Back-to-School'.
- All children complete five years of primary schooling.
- All children complete eight years of elementary schooling.
- Focus on elementary education of satisfactory quality with emphasis on education for life.
- Universal retention
- Bridge all gender and social category gaps at Primary stage and at elementary education level

SSA FRAME WORK :

- To allow states to formulate context specific guidelines within the overall framework
- To encourage districts in States and UTs to reflect local specificity
- To promote local need based planning based on broad National Policy norms
- To make planning a realistic exercise by adopting broad national norms.
